

To whom it may concern:

Thank you for telling us that next Thursday the coffee bar is closing at 9PM instead of 10 PM. Thank you for telling us about that new Soc/Anth class that three people will end up signing up for. Thank you for telling us about “Taking Care of Your Plant” day at the arboretum. Thank you for telling us about the documentary showing next week and then telling us that you got the time wrong. And thank you for telling me every week about your weekly healing sessions. Thanks a whole lot.

Sincerely,
[reserved-students]
