

Nobody for President
by Al Bradbury

We've all been disappointed by the folks that we elect
We think that they're on our side 'til they get there and defect
But there is just one candidate, I think that you'll agree
Who will never break her promises or sell out to BP
She's the only one I trust, that's why my vote's for... Nobody

Nobody's got the courage, Nobody's got the brains
Nobody, all by herself, can bring us sweeping change
Nobody's incorruptible, Nobody's just that good
And if Nobody can do it right, I think Nobody should!

Nobody's campaign will be completely pure and sunny
'Cause Nobody can win without accepting Wall Street money
And Nobody, who stands for working folks like you and me,
Will be allowed to win the vote in our plutocracy!

Well, you may call me an optimist, or a cynic, I'm not sure
When I say Nobody's the president that we've been waiting for But Nobody could be better than the last few, you'll allow
And if Nobody had won last time, think where we'd be by now!
