                          C F C G | C F G - |
                          C F C G | C F G - |

Chorus:

Hey I don't know but I been told
The streets of heaven are paved with gold
I'd like to pry those cobbles loose
And put that gold to better use

Verse:

Melody in number three
Her voice is like an angel
Tried out to be America's new star
They turned her down the second round
Said she's not right for cable
So Melody's still working at the bar
    I said, "I'm sorry, they were wrong,
    And this is not where you belong"
    She said, "Who belongs in this building?
    I'm lucky - at least I can sing"

Chorus (repeats)

Verse:

Larry at the checkout counter
Counting every penny
He hopes to be a manager in time
He gives out gumdrops to the kids
But don't give out too many
On Fridays you account for every dime
    And Larry has a son he loves
    And who he must be thinking of
    The sad truth he has had to face
    Is other kids take second place

Chorus (repeats)

Bridge:

You know that movie in which Mark Wahlberg
Gets on the Eagles football team?
I hope Matt Damon makes it to college
I even cheered for Will Smith
In the Wall Street machine
One kid gets out, one out of thousands
Is that as big as we can dream?

Verse:

I dreamed a dream when I was ten
And twice as smart as other men
That I would be the President one day
But now I see that's arrogant
And no one should be President
And smarter is a tricky word to say
    And whose idea was this dumb
    Economy that's zero-sum
    And wouldn't it be more kick-ass
    To win for the whole working class?

Chorus (repeats)
